

A letter to God

Gil Fuentes

The author of A letter to God is Gil Fuentes.

He was born on 17 November 1997.

He died on 10 December 1966.

He was educated in Mexico and was interested in social issues.

He received the National prize for literature (Mexico) for his works.

His writing style is simple, realistic and shows deep faith and human emotions.

Questions and answers:-

Oral Comprehension check

1. What did Lencho hope for?

Ans = Lencho hoped for rain because his crops needed water to grow.

2. Why did Lencho say the raindrops were like 'new coins'?

Ans = He compared big drops to ten-cent coins and small ones to five-cent coins because rain would help him earn money through a good harvest.

3. How did the rain change? What happened to Lencho's yield?

Ans = The rain turned into a hailstorm, and all the crops in the field were destroyed.

4. What were Lencho's feelings when the hail stopped?

Ans = Lencho felt very sad and worried because his entire crop was ruined.

Thinking about the text

1. Who or what did Lencho have faith in? What did he do?

Ans = Lencho had full faith in God. He wrote a letter to God asking for 100

Pesos to help his family.

2. Why did the postmaster laugh? What did he do then?

Ans = He laughed at Lenchu's faith but was also impressed. He decided to help him by collecting money.

3. Was Lenchu surprised to find money? Why or why not?

Ans = No, he was not surprised because he had complete faith that God would help him.

4. What made Lenchu angry?

Ans = Lenchu got angry because he received only 70 Pesos and that part of the employees had stolen the rest.

5. Why does the Lenchu think has taken the rest of the money? What is the story?

Ans = He thought the part employees took the money. The story is that they were actually the ones who helped him.